

Session 11 Quiz (Rule 20)

1. True or False:
 - a. A player may unreasonably delay play, if they are requesting a ruling.
 - b. Under the 2019 Rules, a player may play a second ball and ask for a ruling in match play.
 - c. A timely request for a ruling cannot occur after the players have left the final green of the match.
 - d. Players in a match may intentionally agree to apply the Rules incorrectly.

2. In match play, Baile is uncertain how to proceed and elects to play 2 balls and get a ruling when she can, with no objection from her opponent Taylor. Baile does not know this is not allowed. Baile wins the hole with both balls and eventually the match 1-Up. The players report the match result and it is posted as final. Later that day Taylor realizes Baile was not allowed to play 2 balls and requests a ruling. Which of the following is correct?
 - a. The match stands as played.
 - b. The loss of hole penalty is applied, meaning Taylor wins the match 1-Up.
 - c. The match is adjusted 1 hole and is now all square thru 18.
 - d. Baile is disqualified.

3. In match play, Todd and Jacque cannot agree if Todd just incurred a loss of hole penalty for placing a club at his feet before making a stroke. Since a referee was not available, they agreed to halve the hole and pick up their balls. Before they tee off the next hole, a referee drives up and Jacque requests a ruling on Todd's possible breach. Which of the following is correct?
 - a. Todd loses the hole for the breach; the request was in time.
 - b. The hole is halved as agreed upon by the players.
 - c. Both players are disqualified for agreeing to waive a rule.
 - d. Todd gets a 1 stroke penalty, the balls are replaced, and the hole continues.

4. In stroke play, the committee mis-adds Taylor's scorecard and posts her score as a 69, when she actually shot 67. Doug was awarded the first-place trophy for shooting 68. Three weeks later the committee is informed that Taylor shot 67. Which of the following is correct?
 - a. Taylor is the rightful winner and must be awarded the trophy.
 - b. The competition has closed and Doug is the winner, Taylor's score stands.
 - c. Taylor score is corrected to 67, but she also gets a 2-stroke penalty for signing a wrong scorecard.
 - d. Taylor is disqualified for signing a wrong scorecard.

5. In individual stroke play, Doug is unsure if his tee shot is embedded. He elects to play 2 balls and doesn't announce which ball he wants to count. He drops a ball in a relief area for an embedded ball. Then he plays the original ball first and holes it for a 2. He then decides not to ask for a ruling and count the 2, he returns the scorecard and does not report to the committee. Which of the following is correct?
 - a. His score for the hole is a 2.
 - b. He gets a 4, including a 2-stroke penalty for not holing out both balls.
 - c. He is disqualified for not holing out both balls.
 - d. He is disqualified for not reporting to the committee.

6. True or False:
 - a. If a player makes a stroke at a wrong ball thinking it was his second ball under Rule 20.1c(3), that penalty will be disregarded if that ball is ruled to not count.
 - b. If video replay determines a breach occurred that could not be seen with the naked eye, the video evidence will be disregarded.
 - c. A penalty of disqualification cannot be imposed after a competition is closed.
 - d. A player who receives a wrong ruling must have it corrected, even if the competition is closed.
